BIOGRAPHIE / BIOGRAPHY

Julie Rembauville and Nicolas Bianco-Levrin are above all passionate about cinema. They created an association, "Prototypes associés", which has been running a festival in Paris for ten years. The hundreds of films they saw encouraged them to make their own. These experiences of "home-made" realizations led them to Sacrebleu productions, where they realized the video clip of the title "Ben Hora", of Pad Brapad. This short film was awarded the prize for best video clip at the Anima Festival 2011 (Brussels).
